ARBITRATION AND WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL: Cowin Equipment Company, Inc. ("CEC") and Buyer, on their own behalf and on behalf of their respective parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, owners, agents and assigns hereby voluntarily and irrevocably waive the right to trial by jury of all disputes, controversies and claims of any kind or character whatsoever arising out of or related to any sale or service, the equipment or other goods made the subject of this sale or service, the transactions evidenced or contemplated by the sale or service, or any prior negotiations or dealings between CEC and Buyer, whether based in tort, contract, warranty, statutory or strict liability or otherwise ("Disputes"). CEC and Buyer acknowledge that the transaction between them involves "commerce" as that term is used in the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"), 9 U.S.C. § 1, et seq. At CEC's sole option, and only if CEC so elects, any Dispute shall be submitted to binding arbitration under the FAA in Birmingham, Alabama administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules. Judgment on the arbitrator's award may be entered by any court of competent jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the above, CEC may elect to initiate litigation in a court for breach of an express promise to pay a sum of money for a sale or service, or for interest and costs of collection, or to exercise any right of offset, lien or self-help repossession, or to seek a court order for possession of any equipment sold or serviced by CEC (hereinafter known as a "collection action"). The commencement of a collection action shall not operate as a waiver or estoppel of the right to arbitrate any counterclaim or other similar claim. If a counterclaim is asserted, at CEC's sole option, CEC may elect to arbitrate the claim made subject to the collection action in the same arbitration as the counterclaim or other similar claim. In such case, the entire litigation shall be stayed or dismissed and shall be subject to arbitration hereunder. Otherwise, the counterclaim or other claims shall be stayed or dismissed and shall be subject to arbitration, and the collection action shall be allowed to proceed in the court in which it was filed. The arbitrator shall decide any dispute regarding whether a particular controversy is required to be resolved by arbitration.
